

HABS DC, WASH, 217-

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

WASHINGTON, D. C.

6p
19d

STATE

COUNTY

TOWN or VICINITY

Miller House (Argyle Terrace) (DC-275)

STRUCTURE

2201 Massachusetts Ave., N.W. Roman brick with stone trim, irregular plan, 66'x34', three-and-a-half stories on raised stone basement, three-bay entrance facade is flanked by two-bay bows, bows have conical roofs, main roof is mansard, random rustication on basement, one-story stone entrance porch with paneled balustrade and urn dec-

CARD 1 of 2

(DC-275)

oration, double stone stairway approaches porch, splayed rusticated lintels and keystones on upper floors, wide plain stone friezes above first and third floors, swag panels on bows, stone dormers with scroll pediments, large gabled central dormer, notable interior woodwork with nautical motifs, contemporary mansarded garage to NE. built expressly for an automobile. Built 1900-1901; Paul J. Pelz, architect; converted to rooming house. 2 ext. photos (1970), 3 int. photos (1970), photocopy of plan (1973); 19 data pages (1970-73).

Card prepared 1978.